

The Angel University Lecture Series

Words & Music for Transition

Norma Elia Cantú Ph.D.

Internationally acclaimed Speaker and Author of Canícula: Snapshots of a Girlhood en la Frontera will speak about the power of the spoken word and about the sacred craft of writing and speaking words to inspire and awaken the Soul in preparation for transition.

Jeannette Debonne

Harpist and Director of Arts and Health Care at Eisenhower Medical Center, Jeannette created the Healing Harps program to assist patients in their healing and also help those in hospice during their time of transition. She will perform her beautiful music and discuss her special work.

Gwendolyn Awen Jones

Medical Intuitive, Spiritual Healer and award winning Author of A Cry from the Womb, Gwendolyn will explain how to work with the Angelic Realms to open the Portals of Light to assist Souls during their times of transition.

Clare Hedin M.A.

Sound Healer, Educator and Singer/Songwriter, Clare will explain her work with children in East Bay Hospitals and adults in personal transformation and healing. She will perform her heart-awakening songs for healing and transition.
